Remarks:

Today SARAH KATE went to LILLIAN KAPLAN to give her the 23 "National Guardian" papers sent to LILLIAN in care of SARAH KATE, 4441 S. 6th Avenue. LILLIAN also received a letter from the "Guardian" which read:

"Dear Miss KAPLAN,

"WESLEY WILCOX, who has been distributing the 'Guardian' in Tucson, has informed us that you would be willing to continue the work while he is away. We believe the University of Arizona must have students who would like to become 'Guardian' subscribers and that both the University library and the public library should receive the paper on a regular basis. I am taking the liberty of sending you a bundle of reprints of the MARK LANE brief on the OSWALD case in the hope that you can either sell them at $.15 each or distribute them where they may lead to new subscriptions. They will arrive toward the end of next week and I hope you will let me know whether you would like a regular weekly bundle for distribution on campus. We are most appreciative
